Mr. John F. Blake
Director of Personnel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Blake:

It was indeed a pleasure to be among the retirees who were invited to attend CIA's first "home coming". I would like to express to you my sincere thanks and appreciation for this unique experience.

It was so well organized and so delightful from the time I arrived until I departed. The address by Mr. Colby was interesting, informative and so very well delivered. I hope that in some small way I will be able to defend CIA as I know it is a fine, well administered, government agency. I worked hard but always thought it was the best Government employer.

I hope I will be honored with an invitation for a return visit.

Kindest regards and best wishes to you and yours,

Sincerely,
